

QUESTIONS TO ASK THE EXPERTS

By: Karen Goodall

Here are some questions designed to ask the experts. These are questions to ask anyone who tells you that they work with Parental Alienation.

- 1. How many children have you been successful in reuniting with their parents in the past five years?
- 2. How many times have you been cross examined in a case concerning parental alienation in the past five years?
- 3. Can you provide citation references to the case you have worked in, how many of those cases are published cases?
- 4. What is the single most important element to address in helping any parent to deal with parental alienation in the court process?
- 5. When would you consider therapy may be possible in a case of alienation?
- 6. What differentiation protocols do you use to help you to decide how to treat alienation?
- 7. What route would you take to reuniting a child with a parent after five years of rejecting behavior in the child?
- 8. Which other professionals would you regard as essential in treating a case of Parental Alienation?
- 9. Who can I speak to who you have helped in the past five years?
- 10. How much will you charge me to do this work and what guarantee will you give me that it will be money well spent?